Community Builder (FLS) Award Nominations - 2023

Community Builder Award Nominations - 2023

Frontline Supervisors are the linchpin of the community-based human service industry. From spearheading extraordinary service delivery for vulnerable Iowans to constantly seeking ways to improve the accessibility, transparency, and coordination among their organization's employees, exceptional Frontline Supervisors fervently pursue the vision that one day, all Iowans will live, learn and work in their community of choice.

IACP developed the Community Builder Award to recognize the essential role of Frontline Supervisors. Each year the awardees have been celebrated at the IACP Annual Conference & Trade Show. Community Builders play a critical role in the lives of 30,000 Iowans who receive community-based services. We are honored to display and commemorate their efforts with the sixth annual Community Builder Awards!

Please note:

- Letter of Recommendation: IACP is requesting a letter of recommendation as a nomination component. The letter must be from the nominee's supervisor, subordinate, or a person served.
- Photo: Please rename the photo file as the nominee's name and ".2023CBA". For example, "JaneDoe.2023CBA"
- Name: Please double-check the spelling of your nominee's name on the submission. Award printing will be based on this form.

All nominations must be submitted by 5:00 pm on Wednesday, March 8, 2023. Please contact Susan (sseease@iowaproviders.org) should you have any questions about the Community Builder Award.
