LEADERSHIP DEVELOPMENT: THE EMOTIONALLY INTELLIGENT LEADER

Building Relationships & Healing Divisions Through Perspective-Taking

Members requested c-suite level training opportunities and IACP listened! The Leadership Development Series is designed to help leaders further their skills in a variety of relevant industry subjects. By delving into additional leadership experience and knowledge, these c-suite level leaders will be able to invest even more into their teams. Join a subject matter expert in a day of executive-level training and stay current with quality service.

About the Featured Presenter:

Brenda Clark Hamilton is a dynamic keynote speaker who offers fresh perspectives in leadership, communication, team-building, change management, and offering one's personal best to life, relationships, and career.

Brenda launched her speaking business in the fall of 2005, by offering training to businesses in her northern Iowa community. She spoke at her first statewide conference in January of 2008. Since that time, she has become a nationally-recognized conference speaker and audience favorite, keynoting at several hundred events in twenty-four states.

Audiences are quick to note Brenda's sense of humor, in-depth knowledge, high energy, and skill at keeping them engaged. She refers to her programs as 'Fresh Coffee' noting that she strives to keep them new, fresh, and invigorating.

Brenda speaks at approximately 100 events each year, in every industry imaginable. Her recent speaking venues have included several trips to Colorado Springs to provide professional development for the United States Olympic and Paralympic Committee. Her first international speaking event, to attendees from New York City, London, and Dublin, was virtual and mid-pandemic, in the spring of 2021. Brenda's career experience includes coordinating professional development for 1200 Iowa teachers. She holds a Master's degree in education.
